

NYO Inspire Day

Sunday 2 April, 11.30 - 18.00

Silverdale School

NYO Inspire Orchestra Day's is coming to Sheffield, and we would love to meet YOU!

NYO Inspire is an inclusion and access programme which provides free opportunities to teenage musicians to develop their orchestral playing. Our objective is to offer dedicated teenage musicians the chance to have a breakthrough experience through NYO Inspire, both as musicians and audience members. Within this we have a special focus on supporting and empowering musicians underrepresented in NYO and the professional orchestra sector.

As part of this, our goal is to offer FREE creative music-making opportunities to local musicians where NYO and NYO Inspire activity is taking place. This activity is open to musicians aged 11 – 18 (KS3 or above) playing at Grade 3 and above level but you don't need to have taken any exams. You also don't need to play an orchestral instrument to participate in this opportunity as the day will be focused on creativity.

If you are a teenage musician and enjoy making music and exploring your own creative ideas, then we'd like to invite you to take part in a special creative workshop day. Working together with our NYO Music Creative Team of NYO Alumni to devise your very own piece inspired by Danzon No.2 by Arturo Marquez. At the end of the day, you'll have the chance to perform this new piece in a Sharing performance to friends and family as well as hear NYO and NYO Inspire musicians perform as an orchestra the piece you have been inspired by!

To sign up, please complete this google form here and further details will be shared with you later in March.
